

OFFICIAL PLAYGROUND TESTER

It's time to upgrade the Thomas Street playground and we need your help to design it! Visit the four playgrounds listed in this book and answer the questions. We also want to hear about what your perfect playground would look like. This will help us know what to include in the new design for Thomas Street.

For further information about the Official Playground Tester contact

Thomas Street Reserve playground

Thomas Street, Hampton

The Thomas Street playground has just celebrated its 29th birthday. For a playground that was built for a 20-year lifespan, this is a big achievement.

It's time now to look to the future and plan a new playground that caters for people of all abilities and age groups.

What is the best thing about the Thomas Street playground?

My big idea for the new Thomas Street playground is...

How could the Thomas Street playground be made better for everyone, including children with a disability?

North Road Foreshore playground

North Road, Brighton

What is the best thing about the North Road foreshore playground?

If you came here to play with a friend in a wheelchair, what could you play on together?

How could the North Road foreshore playground be made better for everyone, including children with a disability?

Dendy Park South playground

Enter via Dacey Street, Brighton East

What is the best thing about the Dendy Park South playground?

If you came here to play with a friend who was blind or had low vision, what could you play on together?

How could the Dendy Park South playground be made better for everyone, including children with a disability?

Booran Reserve

Booran Road, Glenhuntly

What is the best thing about the Booran Reserve playground?

If you came here to play with a friend in a wheelchair, what could you play on together?

How could the Thomas Street playground be made better for everyone, including children with a disability?

My perfect playground

Now we want you to imagine what your perfect playground would look like...

Tell us as much as you can about what this playground looks like?
